Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 18-25, 27, 28 and 30-33 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed to the field of security systems, and in particular to the field of distributed software controlled security systems. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features:

Regarding claim 18: "second appliance of the plurality of appliances includes second appliance component for effecting a second primary function independent of security; and the alarm activation processor is integrated in the second appliance".

Regarding claim 24: "an area security devices is configured to detect an area status of an area; wherein: the activation processor is also operably coupled to the area security device and is further configured to effect the alarm response dependent on the area status".

Regarding claim 25: "the alarm activation processor is further configured to effect the alarm response in further dependence upon a rule base that is associated with the first appliance".

Regarding claims 27, 28, 30 and 31: "the status report of the electronic appliance for the security system is Home Audio Video Interoperability (HAVi) compliant and Home Application Program Interface (API) compliant.

Regarding claim 32: "the alarm activation processor is also operably coupled to an area security device that provides an area status, and the alarm response is further dependent on the area status".

Regarding claim 33: "the alarm activation processor is further configured to effect the alarm response in dependence upon a rule base that is associated with the other appliance".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
